

Easter Weekend in New Harmony, 2021

Our shops, restaurants, historic places and public spaces welcome you. Our parks and gardens are ready for your visit. New Harmony is beautiful this time of year with trees and flowers in bloom throughout the town.

CONTEST: "GUESS HOW MANY JELLY BEANS"

Hop over to the corner of Main Street and Church Street between 10 and 5 on Saturday or 10 and 4 Sunday and enter the "Guess How Many Jelly Beans" contest.

If you are the person who comes closest to the exact number of jelly beans (without going over), you will win $100 cash! One entry per person.

In the event of a tie, one winner will be drawn from among the correct entries.

Easter Bunny Photo Opportunities!

Take a photo with the Easter Bunny (socially distanced, of course!) The Easter Bunny (and his pal) will be at the intersection of Main and Church or out roaming around and talking to visitors in stores!

All you need is a smile!

Decorate and Take a Sugar Cookie at Capers Emporium

Create your own edible masterpiece in the Bakery area at Capers Emporium on Saturday. FREE!

Simply take a seat, pick out a blank cookie (we will have applied the solid color icing on top), channel your inner artist, and we will have icing and experts ready to help you create something that is so YOU!

When you're done, you can take it with you or gobble it up. Your choice!

Lunch Options at Black Lodge Coffee Roasters

The famous Avocado Toast is back, starting this weekend. And you won't want to miss the charcuterie board "Lunch Box" available at Black Lodge from Board and Wheel.

Friday and Saturday night special at Mary Scott's Casually Fine Dining – Grilled MahiMahi with cilantro lime rice and red pepper salsa.

Mary Scott's is a 21+ establishment with a full service bar. 18+ can dine there if accompanied by a parent. Carry-out is also available.

Reservations recommended. (812) 270-5030
