Booth spaces are assigned according to the needs of the festival and the buildings structure as well as the needs of our participants. Therefore, you may express a preference for location, but no location is guaranteed. We will do our best to accommodate the needs of our vendors.

Only vendors selling unique, quality, or homemade merchandise will be considered. We do not allow mass merchandising vendors unless they have previously attended and have been grandfathered in.

Should a vendor treat our volunteers with disrespect or make what we feel are unreasonable demands, said vendor will not be invited back.

Electricity is available in some, but not all, booth spaces. Again, we will do our best to assign a booth that fills your needs.

8' tables are available to rent at an additional $10 but must be reserved in advance.

To have your name in the printed brochures this year, you must have paid registration by Oct. 15, 2022.
